April 28, 2016 – Asheboro, NC – Randolph Communications selected seven local high school seniors to receive $7,000 in College Scholarships. Randolph Communications' General Scholarship Program was established for the benefit of its members' families as a means of encouraging young people in their pursuit of learning and their efforts to improve the lives of themselves, their families, and their communities.

"Education is essential to any student's future and Randolph Communications is pleased to be able to help students from our community obtain a college education. We consider our Scholarship Program to be an investment in the future growth, development, and well-being of our customers' families and the entire community we serve," said Frankie Cagle, CEO & General Manager.

Randolph Communications has given more than $104,000 in scholarships since 1995 through its annual scholarship program. This year's General Scholarship winners are:

- Victoria Paige Collins of Chatham Central High School
- Haley Madison Davis of North Moore High School
- Cassie Vernay Gann of Southwestern Randolph High School
- Paige Jordan Garner of North Moore High School
- Blake Keith Kearns of Southwestern Randolph High School
- Jordan Marie McDuffie of Southwestern Randolph High School
- Halo Irene Paul of West Montgomery High School
